

Regent College London¹

Terms and Conditions of Contract between Student and Regent College London²

Contents

1. Introduction
2. Terminology
3. Equality, Diversity & Inclusion
4. Admission & Enrolment
5. Cancellation
6. Our Obligations
7. Your Obligations
8. Fees
9. Tuition Fee Refunds and Compensation
10. Complaints
11. Suspension
12. Termination
13. Data Protection
14. Events beyond the control of the parties
15. Other important terms

Introduction

1. This document sets out key aspects of the relationship between you and Regent College London (the College).
2. When you are offered a place to study at the College it is in accordance with these Terms and Conditions and acceptance of an offer means that you accept these Terms and Conditions in full. A legally binding contract between you and the College is formed when you accept the offer of a place.
3. It is therefore important that you read and understand this document in full before accepting your offer of a place. If there is anything said or written by or on behalf of the College that you wish to take into account when deciding whether or not to accept your offer please seek written confirmation from the Admissions Team beforehand. Please also contact the Admissions Team if you have any questions regarding these Terms and Conditions or any of the other documents listed below.
4. These Terms and Conditions together with the:
 - a. Offer Letter;
 - b. Tuition Fee Refund and Compensation policy

¹ Regent College London is the Trading name of RTC Education Ltd.

² These Terms and Conditions apply to prospective and enrolled students on the HND programmes. For other higher education courses of study offered by our university partners, please refer to the universities' terms and conditions.

<https://www.rcl.ac.uk/wp-content/uploads/2020/06/Tuition-Fee-Refund-and-Compensation-Policy.pdf>

- c. Acceptance of an Offer Form; and

College Student Policies & Procedures form the basis of a contract between you and the College for the provision of educational services.

(<http://www.regentcollegelondon.com/our-college/policies/>);

5. Students applying to study with the College on one of our partner programmes should be aware that they are considered students of the partner institution, therefore the terms and conditions which provide the basis of your contract are those of the franchising partner institution.³

Terminology

6. Regent College, the College, or We or Us means:

Regent College London, a trading name of RTC Education Ltd, a company registered in England and Wales (4422774), as now or in the future constituted (and any successor).

Registered office: 167 Imperial Drive, Harrow, HA2 7HD

Contact: Telephone on 020 8966 9900

UKPRN: 10008455.

7. You or Your or the Student means the person who has been offered a place at the College and has completed and signed the Acceptance of an Offer Form.
8. Admission occurs when you accept the offer of a place and are entitled to enrol as a student at the College.
9. Enrolment occurs when you have fulfilled any conditions of your accepted offer and submitted a completed Acceptance of Offer Form.
10. Re-enrolment occurs annually and requires enrolled students to confirm the continuation of their studies at the College before a published deadline.

Equality, Diversity & Inclusion

12. The College is committed to working together to build a learning community founded on equality of opportunity – a learning community which celebrates the rich diversity of our student and staff populations and one in which discriminatory behaviour is challenged and not tolerated within our community.
13. The College is committed to supporting, developing and promoting equality and diversity in all of its practices and activities and aims to establish an inclusive culture free from discrimination and based upon the values of dignity, courtesy and respect. The College is committed to creating and sustaining a positive, supportive and excellent teaching and learning environment for its students. We are committed to providing fair, equitable and mutually supportive learning and working environment for both our students and our staff.

³ Please see Terms and Conditions provided by the University partner

14. The College is committed to eliminating discrimination and advancing equality on the grounds of age, disability, gender reassignment, marriage and civil partnership, pregnancy and maternity, race, religion and belief (including lack of belief), sex and sexual orientation.
15. The College values diversity and recognises that our college is greatly enhanced through the wide and disparate range of backgrounds, experiences, views, beliefs and cultures represented within its staff and student groups. We aim to embrace diversity in all of its activities and proudly acknowledge that variety and difference are intrinsic to the wellbeing and future development our College.
16. The College is committed to ensuring that an environment is created that respects the diversity of staff and students and enabling them to achieve their full potential.

Admission & Enrolment

14. Offer of a place: Your offer letter sets out the steps you must take to accept your offer of a place and whether the offer is subject to any conditions.
15. Acceptance: Acceptance of the offer and fulfilment of any conditions will entitle you to enrol with the College for the academic year specified in your offer letter.
16. Permission to enrol: You may not be permitted to enrol with the College if you:
 - a. provide incorrect or misleading information;
 - b. fail to meet any of the conditions specified in your offer letter;
 - c. have a criminal conviction contrary to the College Admissions Policy;
 - d. fail to pay the required tuition fees (or provide information in relation to payment) as specified in the College Tuition Fees Refund and Compensation Policy;
 - e. cannot prove you have the right to study in the United Kingdom.
17. Permission to re-enrol: You may not be permitted to re-enrol with the College if you:
 - a. are suspended from the College;
 - b. have been withdrawn from the College through a failure to meet academic requirements or for contravention of the College Regulations or Policies;
 - c. have committed or been convicted of a criminal offence which, had it been committed at the time of your application, would have precluded you from enrolment;

- d. have tuition fee debt, without an agreed repayment plan, or have contravened any other aspect of the College Tuition Fees Refund and Compensation Policy.

Cancellation

18. Cancellation: Cancellation means the cancellation of a place at the College which has been accepted by you and which occurs before you enrol at the College or where you do not commence your studies at the College.
19. Cooling off period: You have the right to cancel your contract with the College and obtain a refund at any time within 14 days of the date on which you accepted your place formally (the cooling off period).
20. Notice of cancellation: Your decision to cancel the contract must be notified to the College in writing by completing and returning a Cancellation of Place Form to admissions@rcl.ac.uk
21. Refund on cancellation: Any payment made by you to the College under this contract prior to the date of cancellation within the cooling off period will be refunded to you within 20 days.
22. Deferral: You may request to defer your place on a programme of study for which you have been offered a place by a maximum of one academic year. If your request is granted, you may be eligible for a refund under the terms of our Tuition Fee Refund and Compensation Policy.
23. Withdrawal: You may terminate your contract and withdraw from the College at any time after the expiry of the cooling off period but must do so in accordance with our termination procedure.

Our Obligations

24. Provision of education: The College will do all that is reasonable to provide an educational environment, tuition and assessment of a range, standard and quality which is suitable for each student and to provide education to at least the standard required by law in the particular circumstances. The College will exercise reasonable care and skill in providing educational services but cannot guarantee that the Student will achieve his / her desired examination results or that results will be sufficient to gain entry to other educational establishments.
25. Continuation of Study: The College has a Student Protection Plan (SPP) which records recognised risks to students' continuation of study and the steps taken to mitigate those risks. A copy of the SPP can be found here:

<https://www.rcl.ac.uk/wp-content/uploads/2020/06/student-protection-plan.pdf>
26. Course variation: Whilst the College recognises the importance of delivering the course it advertises in its prospectus, we reserve the right to make minor variations (such as updating the curriculum, changing staff and adjusting your timetable) in order to enhance the student experience, act on student feedback and respond to changing laws, regulations and best practice. The College will not make material variations to your course without consulting you and allowing you to withdraw from the course without financial penalty in the event that you do not wish to accept the change.

27. HND Pathways: Students on the HND make a decision on their chosen pathway prior to the start of the second year, however, pathways which do not recruit the minimum number of students may not run. In the event of this happening students will be informed in a timely manner and advised of alternative options.
28. Course closure: In the event that the College is unable to continue to deliver your course, we will use reasonable endeavours to find you an alternative course at Regent or a place at another provider and allow you to withdraw without financial penalty, and with appropriate compensation if applicable, in accordance with the College Tuition Fee Refund and Compensation policy.
29. Consumer protection: The College complies with Competition and Markets Authority (CMA) consumer protection legislation and has designed its contractual arrangements with its students to be fair, transparent and reasonable.
30. Policies and procedures: The College will comply with its own policies and procedures. If the College makes changes to its policies or procedures it will use reasonable endeavours to bring them to your attention before they take effect.

Your Obligations

31. You agree to treat all members of the College community with dignity and respect and in accordance with the expectations set out in the College's student policies and procedures which can be found here: <https://www.rcl.ac.uk/our-college/our-policies/>

You understand that the College may take disciplinary action against you in the event that these obligations are breached. Please ensure you read the College Student Charter, which is available on HELP.

32. You agree to attend and participate in all of your scheduled teaching and learning activities that are scheduled for your programme of study, as set out in our Attendance and Engagement Policy. You are expected to undertake independent study in order to meet the learning and experience outcomes of your course.
33. You agree to notify the College during the application process and subsequently if at any time you become aware or suspect that you have a learning difficulty or medical condition which may impact on your ability to undertake your studies, and will provide the College with a copy of all requested reports and relevant information. The College may decline to offer you a place or you may be withdrawn from the College if, in the professional judgement of staff and after consultation with you, we are unable to provide adequately for your needs.
34. You agree to monitor your College email account regularly.
35. You agree to keep the College up to date with your contact information.

Fees

36. Registration Fee: You are required to pay a registration fee to register on the Pearson BTEC HND programme. Please consult the current fee list - <https://www.rcl.ac.uk/studying-at-regent/fees-and-funding/> - for details.
37. Deposit: All deposits you pay are non-refundable, this means that if you change your mind after enrolling on the course, the deposit paid (either by you or on your behalf) cannot be refunded. Please refer to the College Tuition Fee Refund and Compensation Policy for full details (<http://www.regentcollegelondon.com/our-college/policies/>).
38. Tuition Fees means fees in respect of, or otherwise in connection with, undertaking the course, including admission, tuition and graduation. Tuition fees are usually charged annually.
39. Additional Costs means charges for goods and services that do not form part of tuition fees. This might include expenses relating to trips, materials, vetting and barring checks and specialist clothing.
40. Total Costs: the total cost of your course, including mandatory additional costs, are set out in the College Fees List – please refer to <https://www.rcl.ac.uk/studying-at-regent/fees-and-funding/>
41. Payment: Acceptance of these Terms and Conditions indicates agreement to be bound by the College Tuition Fee Refund and Compensation Policy and to pay all fees owed to the College when they become due in accordance with the payment terms agreed.
42. Payment timing: Self-funded UK/EU students must pay full fees for the academic year at the start of their programme of study. Overseas students, whether self-funded or sponsored, must pay full fees for the academic year before they will be issued with Confirmation of Acceptance of Studies. Students funded by Student Finance England (SFE) will have their fees paid in instalments directly to the College.
43. Fee Increases: The College may increase its tuition fees on an annual basis and will do so in accordance with its Tuition Fee Refund and Compensation Policy.
44. Non-payment: If you do not pay your tuition fees on time as agreed, the College may:
- (a) restrict access to its premises and facilities
 - (b) suspend or terminate your registration
 - (c) report you to credit agencies and, if applicable, to SFE.
- If this contract is terminated as a result of non-payment any refund will be paid in accordance with the Tuition Fee Refund and Compensation Policy.
45. Appropriation: Save agreed otherwise, the College shall allocate payments made to the earliest balance on the Fees account.

Tuition Fee Refunds & Compensation

46. Refund eligibility: Any request for a tuition fee refund must be made in writing. Please refer to the Tuition Fee Refund and Compensation Policy for more details.
47. Compensation eligibility: A student may be eligible for compensation in the event that the College is not able to preserve his or her continuity of study. Any request for compensation must be made in writing. Please refer to the Tuition Fee Refund and Compensation Policy for more details.

Complaints

48. Concerns & Complaints: The College welcomes feedback from prospective students and members of its community and will engage with students on an informal and formal basis in accordance with its policies and procedures.
49. You are entitled to make a complaint about any aspect of the College's, recruitment, selection and admissions process and any aspect of the student experience at the College. The College Complaints Policy and Procedure is available on our website
<https://www.rcl.ac.uk/policy/complaints/student-complaints-procedure.pdf>
50. Students who have applied to any programme of study offered by our university partners, and wish to make a complaint about any aspect of the recruitment, selection and admissions process and any aspect of their learning experience should use the University's complaints process.
51. External Review: Students whose complaint(s) are not resolved under the Student Complaints Procedure may, once they have been issued with a Completion of Procedures Letter, refer the matter to the Office for the Independent Adjudicator (OIA).

Suspension

52. Suspension: the College may suspend a student from their course in accordance with its Student Disciplinary Regulations.
53. Non-exhaustive examples of the circumstances in which the College may decide to suspend a student include where it is deemed:
 - a. necessary to enable an investigation to be conducted into alleged misconduct .
 - b. appropriate as a disciplinary sanction in its own right .
54. Appeal: A student may appeal a decision to suspend them in accordance with the Student Disciplinary Regulations .

Termination

55. Automatic termination: The College will deem this contract to terminate with immediate effect in the event that you fail to re-enrol on your course by the deadline.
56. Termination by you: You may terminate this contract and withdraw from the College at any time. If you do this after the expiry of the cooling off period you must provide the College with written notice of withdrawal by completing and returning a Withdrawal Form or by email to attendance@rcl.ac.uk
- Termination will take effect when the College acknowledges receipt of your Withdrawal Form or email in writing.
57. Termination by the College: The College may terminate this contract and on written notice deem you have withdrawn from your course if:
- You have an outstanding tuition fee debt or have contravened the terms of the College Tuition Fee Refund and Compensation Policy;
 - You fail to meet the applicable College attendance requirements as set out in its Attendance and Engagement Policy;
 - You fail to meet the applicable College progression or award requirements as set out in its Assessment Regulations;
 - You fail to meet the College Fitness to Study requirements set out in its Fitness to Study Policy;
 - You fail to meet the College Fitness to Practice requirements set out in its Fitness to Practice Policy;
 - You breach the Student Disciplinary Procedure or your behaviour represents an immediate and serious risk to your health, welfare and safety or that of others;
 - You commit or are convicted of a criminal offence which, had it been committed at the time of your application, would have precluded you from enrolment;
 - You have withheld key information or provided incorrect or misleading information to the College.
58. Appeal against termination: You may appeal against the College's decision to terminate this contract under clause 57 above in accordance with the arrangements set out in the relevant policy.

Data Protection

59. Regent College London has put in place systems and procedures to ensure that it is compliant with the Data Protection Act (2018) and the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR).
60. Privacy Notice: the College has a Privacy Notice which explains how we will use your personal data. Key information from this Privacy Notice is provided on the Application Form. The Privacy Notice is also published on the College website and can be found here:

<https://www.rcl.ac.uk/policy/data-protection-and-privacy/data-protection-privacy-notice.pdf>

You must read the Privacy Notices in full before accepting your place.

61. Information Sharing: The College will share aspects of your personal data with the Office for Students (OfS) and Higher Education Statistics Agency (HESA) for the purpose of compiling statistics about applicants and students for use by government bodies. The HESA Student Data Protection Notice can be found here:

<https://www.hesa.ac.uk/about/regulation/data-protection>

The OfS Data Protection and Privacy notice can be found here:

<https://www.officeforstudents.org.uk/ofs-privacy/>

62. Student Finance England: If you are in receipt of tuition fee loans and/or other funding from Student Finance England (SFE), the College reserves the right to disclose your details, including academic progress, achievement and attendance rates and other requested information to SFE
63. Right of access: You have the right to access the personal data about you that the College holds in its structured files.

Events beyond the control of the parties

64. Force majeure: An event beyond the reasonable control of the College or the Student is a Force Majeure Event and may include such events as an act of God, fire, flood, storm, war, riot, civil unrest, act of terrorism, strikes, industrial disputes, outbreak of epidemic or pandemic of disease, failure of utility service or transportation.
65. Notification: If either the College or you are prevented from or delayed in carrying out its contractual obligations by a Force Majeure Event, that party shall immediately notify the other in writing and shall be excused from performing those obligations while the Force Majeure Event continues.
66. Continued force majeure: If a Force Majeure Event continues for a period greater than 90 days, the party who has provided notification under clause 65 shall notify the other of the steps to be taken to ensure performance of its contractual obligations.
67. Termination: If the Force Majeure Event continues for a total period greater than 120 days, the party in receipt of notification under clause 66 may terminate this contract by providing at least three working days' notice in writing to the other party.

Other Important Terms

68. Consumer rights: This is a consumer contract. Care has been taken to use plain language and to give clear explanations in these Terms and Conditions. If any words alone or in combination infringe consumer rights laws or any other provision of law, they shall be treated as severable and shall be replaced with words which give as near the original meaning as may be fair. Nothing in these Terms and conditions affects the Student's statutory rights. If you wish to obtain independent advice you may contact the National Union of Students or the Citizens Advice Bureau.

69. No Variation: Save as set out in these Terms and Conditions, no variation of these Terms and Conditions shall be effective unless it is in writing and signed by you and the College.
70. Updates: The College reviews its policies, procedures and related documents to ensure that they are current, accurate and accessible and publishes the latest versions on its website and Virtual Learning Environment. This is usually done on an annual basis unless external requirements necessitate immediate changes.
71. Enforcement: No failure or delay by you or the College to enact any provision of these Terms and Conditions shall constitute a waiver of any provision and will not prevent you or the College from enforcing that provision at a later date.
72. Interpretation: These Terms and Conditions supersede any previously in force and will be construed as a whole. In the event of inconsistencies between these Terms and Conditions and any other contractual information provided to you, these Terms and Conditions shall prevail. Headings, unless required to make sense of the immediate context, are for ease of reading only and are not otherwise part of these Terms and Conditions.
73. Liability: Nothing in these Terms and Conditions shall limit the liability of the College for fraud, wilful deceit, death or personal injury where this is caused by the negligence of the College.
74. Third party rights: Only you and the College are parties to this contract. No third party is a party to this contract and shall not have any rights to enforce any term of it.
75. Jurisdiction: This contract was made at the College and it, together with each matter relating to the provision of educational services by the College, is governed exclusively by the law of England and Wales and the parties submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the Courts of England and Wales.

Author	Head of Professional Services
Version	1.6
Update	August 2020
Approval	Senior Leadership Team
Review Date	August 2021